CLUB NOTES

Our visitors to-day, Scunthorpe United, have got off to a poor start this Season. Their first win of the Season came last Saturday against Middlesbrough, who occupy a good position in the League, so maybe the tide has turned for them at last.

The Scunthorpe Club was founded in 1912 and came in the Football League (3rd Division North) in 1950, so they are comparative newcomers to League Football.

They topped the Third Division North by seven points in 1958, and since their promotion have done quite well in the Second Division. Our latest signing, Brian Godfrey, joined us from Scunthorpe United and though denied a First Team outing with us up to now, has shown excellent form in our Reserve Team.

Scunthorpe United last played here on 13th October, 1962, and the result was a convincing win for North End by three goals to one, scored by Dawson (2) and Alston (1). We need to win again to keep up with the Leaders in the Second Division.

The First Team continued their winnings ways by an excellent 3-2 win at Maine Road, a happy hunting ground for us. Once again we established a comfortable lead in the first half and seemingly coasting to a good win, lost our grip and supporters who were present spent an agonizing eight minutes waiting for the final whistle. Nevertheless it was a good win on an away ground and added another two points to our very impressive haul away from home.

The improvement in the Reserve Team continues and they registered another 2-1 win at home on Saturday last against Rovers' Reserves. The "A" Team lost at home to Manchester United by 2 goals to 1.

Willie Cunningham was favoured with an excellent night for his Testimonial Match on Monday last. A crowd of almost 19,000 turned up to see many old favourites and present day stars, and a word of thanks is due to all the players taking part and to the public for the excellent support given to the game.

Naturally the tempo was slightly below what we usually see in League Games, but the skill nevertheless was much in evidence and but for the presence of two such capable goalkeepers as Fred Else and Bert Trautmann there could have been a lot of excellent goals scored.

We feel sure that all who attended felt well satisfied with the entertainment provided by these past and present stalwarts of the game.

Preston North End Supporters' Club

Following that grand Benefit Match last Monday night the Supporters' Club would like to take this opportunity to thank Willie Cunningham for all he has done for Preston North End, both on the field and off it, during his years at Deepdale.

To mark our appreciation of a fine sportsman, a special social evening is being arranged in his honour. The event will probably take place on a Tuesday evening in the near future at a time and place to be announced later. Dancing and other entertainments will be provided and all the proceeds will be presented to Willie. So let's see a packed house full of true North-Enders on the night !

TRAVELLING : What a grand sight it was to see so many Prestonians at Maine Road last Saturday. The cheer North End received when they turned out was even louder than the City got ! Let's have a repetition of that this afternoon and at Northampton next week.

Coaches leave for Northampton at 7-30 a.m. from Starchhouse Square ; and the estimated time of arrival back in Preston is between 10-30 and 11-0 p.m. The fare for the trip is 18/6, which does not include a meal. A lengthy stop will be made for tea at the "Blue Boar" cafe on the M1 Motorway where excellent meals are served. Stand tickets for the game can be obtained when booking.

On November 16th, North End visit Leeds United for what promises to be one of the best games of the season. Coaches bound for Elland Road will leave Starchhouse Square at 11-0 a.m. The fare for this trip is 14/6, including a meal at Ilkley on the return journey. Stand tickets may also be obtained on application.

If there is sufficient interest a trip will be run to Portsmouth on November 30th. Coaches would leave Preston at midnight on the night before and would return by 2-0 a.m. Sunday morning. The fare to include a meal will be approximately £2. All

KEN JONES (Goalkeeper). A native of South Wales, and a former Welsh Under-23 international. Joined Scunthorpe in 1958-59 season from Cardiff City, and is reckoned one of the best goalkeepers in the Second Division.

DEREK HEMSTEAD (Full back). Joined Scunthorpe straight from a local school, and has worked his way through the junior teams. Has made several first team appearances in the last two seasons, and is a full back of real promise. Born in Scunthorpe.

JACK BROWNSWORD (Full back). Scunthorpe's veteran full back, having joined the club from Frickley Colliery, while United were in the Midland league. Has a fine record as a player, and is the team's penalty expert. Had a short spell with Hull City before going non-League with Frickley. A native of Bentley, near Doncaster, and a former collier.

ARCHIE GIBSON (Wing half). Joined Scunthorpe for a fee from Leeds United, and now starting his fourth season with the club. Has been club captain for the past three seasons. A Scotsman, who plays a calm game, and is rarely rattled.

TOM PASSMORE (Centre half). Joined Scunthorpe five years ago from South Shields but was previously with Sunderland. A strong player who has stepped into the first team as deputy for Neale, and played some outstanding games.

BARRY HORSTEAD (Wing half). Another long-service player, who joined Scunthorpe from Brigg Town. Was originally a wing-half, but has also played well at centre half. Born at Brigg, but Scunthorpe is his only league club. Strong, full back, and full of courage.

ANDY WILSON (Wing forward). Joined Scunthorpe from Sheffield United three years ago, and has played well in both wing positions. Very fast, and clever on the ball. A native of Rotherham.

BARRY LINDSEY (Inside forward). A young inside forward of great promise, who made his first team debut two years ago at the age of 18. Joined Scunthorpe straight from a local school, and has quickly developed into an inside forward of great potential. Has a younger brother Keith who is on the ground staff. Born in Scunthorpe.

PETER NEALE (Centre forward). Joined Scunthorpe for their first season in the Second Division in 1958 as an inside forward from Oldham Athletic. From there was switched to wing half, and later to centre half, where he has made his name. Fearless, and a fine header of the ball. Born in Derbyshire.

IAN LAWTHER (Inside Forward). Signed during the close season from Blackburn Rovers at a club record transfer fee. Formerly played with Sunderland. The only Irish-born player on the staff and the holder of several international caps.

IAN CRAWFORD (Wing forward). Signed just before last season's transfer deadline for a big fee from West Ham. Yet another Scot, who has quickly settled down at Scunthorpe. Like Brownsword, is a qualified F.A. coach. Before joining West Ham was with Hearts. Edinburgh born.
